A Report on the World Muslim Conference held at Karachi on February 9-10, 1951.		16 Jan 53
PERTINENT INFORMATION
When it came to speech-making, the Grand Mullah, in particular, did not live up to the Embassy's anticipations. In his "presidential address" (each session had a president) at the opening session of the Conference his seven-point message was replete with exhortations to Muslim unity, and little else. He did, however, allow himself a particularly critical allusion to Palestine in those words: "The Jews are working in close cooperation with imperialist powers to execute their nefarious schemes. The imperialist powers have driven a wedge between Muslim countries to destroy Islam and to separate Muslim countries in Asia from those in Africa. But Jewish greed did not stop there... (The Jews) were had one of their chests publish an article in a well-known American newspaper urging the Jews to organize a military expedition to occupy Medina". (The full text of his speech, as it appeared in the press in English translation, is enclosed)."
