SUBJECT then inquired what to do if an extension of the "closing hour" was desired, and was told to report to the appropriate police station one to two hours in advance. Angerer added "If you already know it, re-port it to Department 3." After some indistinguishable words, KAUDER-ELATT told Angerer to telephone him (RAUDER-KLATT) and "he", an unidentified individual residing at Gabelsbergerstrases 36, Salzburg (?), would tell Angerer at once. Angerer stated that this same "he" had been wanted for the past 15 years.

EXHIBIT V: In the fifth of the fourteen conversations which took place on 12 February 1953 at 1009 hours, and was in the Hungarian language, LAUDER-XLATT told one Mr. Semann, o/o Wagner Gregor, Bayernstrause 28, Salsburg, telephone number 28606, that he (KAU DER-KLA T) was sending back Semann's letter because SUFJECT did not speak unough Hungarian and, thesefore, did not read Semann's letter. Both KAUDER-KLATT and Semann appeared to be angry at each other. Among the runarks passed back and forth in this convertation, KAUDER-KLATT statud that Semann knew overything, including about the three hundred dollars, adding, "...Bell, I am lying, now you." KAUDER-ZIATT invited Semann to come to him so that the two could discuse the matter but Semann refused, stating that he vanted souhing here to de with SUBJECT, and that his (Seman's) only interest lay in his (Seman's) BODSY.

EXHIBIT VI: In the sixth of the fourteen monversations, which took place on 12 February 1953 at 1013 hours, a woman, Ibi, speaking from KAUDER-KIATT's telephone, spoke in Hungerian with Semann. The latter was speaking from the same telephone he had used in the conversation. reported in EXHIBIT V. Thi asked Semann to some to the Rupertihof, stating that unless he same he would not receive his money, but Sgrann appeared relustant. Ibi then said she would go to see Somann that afternoon. Semann informed her that he would be "...here..." from 1400 hours until 1600 cr 1700 hours, and Ibi said she would telephone him to say when she would come. Semann appeared in agreement with this arrangement, but said, "Don't count on my coming unless everything has been settled. Bring me the money and the papers.

Agent's Notes: Ibi is probably Ibola Keuder-Klatt nee Kalman, SUBJECT's wife. The Rupertihof is the Pupertthof Notel, Supertgasse 10, Salzburg, Land Salsburg, Austria, currently operated by SUBJECT.

woman in Salsburg if "they" were already "there". The woman replied that "they" were, that "they" were on the next floor and looking into every room. She added that she would have to terminate the conversation, otherwise "they" would realize that she was to sphoning. KAUDER-KIATT expressed concern at "their" actions, and stated the perhaps he would come by taxi.

EXHIBIT VIII: In the eighth of the fourteen conversations, which took place on 9 February 1953 at 1012 hours, SUBJECT spoke with a woman memod Gerti, hast name unknown, in Vienna, Austria, at telephone number B 18873. Having asked for one Harry, last name unknown, and, being told that he was not at home, KAUDER-KLATT asked if "they" were sure to come on the following day, and received an effirmative answer. SUBJECT asked further if the money were there. When Certi said ahe did not know, KAUDER-ELATT said that if it were not, he would wire, whoreupon ferti said that "we" would not be home after five c'clock. "He", she said, would leave at 0965 hours, and SUBJECT said that then "they" would be "here" at 1600 hours. If KAUDER-KLATT were not at the station, "he" was to bring "them" in a taxi to the Supertihof where "they" were not to go in but were to telephone KAUDER-KLATT. Gerti stated that she was more inted with a Leiningen family who own the Kalhari Villa in Groisgmain, Land Selsburg, Austria, but XAUDER-KLATT asked Gerti is he would come "here", she replied that her contract would make her stay in Vionna (?) "...until Mayees to play..." She promised to page on to Harry what GUDER-KLATT had maid.

EXHIBIT IX: In the ninth of the fourteen conversations, which took place on 10 February 1953 at 1022 hours, EARDER-KLAFT received a telephone call fron Vienna, Austria, to lephone number B 15873, and spoke with five different people: en unidentified men; one Wr. Hachart, first name unknown; one Harry, last name unknown; one Dorli, first name unknown, female; and one Brwin, last name unknown. SUBJECT was informed that "they" could not leave yet, and Machart stated that it would be proposed that "...all of us..." 20, but return the same day; both because of difficulties with the quantity of luggage, and in order to discuss the "...application and the conditions ... " KAUDER-KIATT appeared amoyed at this, stating that the trip, going and returning, would cost 1300 schillings, and that he had already paid 1600 schillings for rooms for nine prons. Herry said that he was not at fault in that he had heard of the change in plans only the preceding night. KAUDER-KLATT stated that in this care he would have to do without "these people", but that he would call them to account for the axpense at the "rade-Union. Sprin stated that there were certain things which had to be discussed, and that KAUDER-KIATT had wanted them to come to him (KAUDER-KIATT), but KAUDER-KIATT replied that she matter could have been straight sned out through the mails in the preceding fourteen days since Harry's return; he added that he would not be in on the autter it there were going to be principle changes. Harry stated that the money had arrived and was deposited at the post-office. SUBJECT cold him to more the money as he did not want any further expenses. Harry said that more people would come the following day on the first train at 0900 hours.

EXHIBIT X: In the tenth of the fourteen conversations, which took nlase on 25 February 1955 at 1145 hours, KAUDER-KIATT told one Mr. Macher first mass unknown, in Vienna that everything had been prepared for Sunday, and ' that "he" would be met at the station and "... socompanied to us... that KAUDER-KLATT would send "Harver" a card and would arrange it so that "he" would have connections with a train. Macher them asked how SAUDER-KLATT had gone to Vienna and whether everyone was satisfied, to which KAUDER-KLATT replied in the affirmative, Machor then asked what "we" were to premare for breakfast, and was told milk or tea and rolls.

Agent's Notes: The Sunday referred to is probably 1 March 1953.

EXHIBIT XI: In the eleventh of the fourteen conversations, which took place on 11 February 1963 at 0936 hours, a Mr. Verworner, first name unknown, Salaburg, told SUBJECT that he had always done the work with " ... Bibus in there.", and asked when he could come with some still outstanding bills for 2000 schillings. KAUDER-KLATT told him to some early in Marsh, assuring him that he could rely on SUBJECT paying then, and stating that there were some official things which KAUDER-KLATT had to pay first.

Agent's Notes: Bibus is probably Adolph Bibus, owner of the Rupertihof Botsl.

EAHIBIT XII: In the would h of the Yourteen conversations, which took place on 25 February 1953 at 1542 hours, SUBJECT wold a Mr. Falli. . REFORT OF FINDINGS

On or about 25 February 1965 Informant 3848 submitted the following information received from an unidentified Source who is working for an unidentified intelligence agency, to this Agent regarding the current associates and activities of SUBJECT. Informant reported that one Wagner, first mane unknown, ourrently residing in Konstanz (Lake Constance), Germany, is well esquainted with SUBJ CT and would gladly give information about him. Informant described Wagner as approximately sixty years of age, of impressive countenance, and personable; however, Informant believed that Wagner is inclined to be deceitful and forgetful. Wagner is allegedly in the employ of the French Inteiligence Service, and the Gehlen Intelligence Service, and has been so amployed since 1945. During World War, II Wagner served as a Colonel in the Gemen Intolligence Service on the staff of Admiral Hilbelm Conarts. Throughout the war Wagner functioned in the Balkan states, particularly in Bulgarie and Hungary. Informant believes that Wayror no longer enjoys the confidence of his superiors in the Gehlen Intelligence Service, and attributes Wagner's decline in standing in the organization to Hiss Annaliese Stanstsky, Wagner's former secretary and peramour. Annelisse Stanstsky, a resident of Innsbruck, Land Tyrol, Austria, has rucently teminated an morous involvement with Wagner, and Informant stated that he believed that Wagner's work in the intelligence field, as well as in other Pields, has declined steadily cipes. Informant all'irmed that Wagner often travels to Salaburg, Land Salaburg, Austria, and to Imasbruck, Lond Tyrol, Austria, but did not know the reason for these travels. Informed: stated that Wagnor often uses the name "Delius-Wagnor" as a cover name in his notivition. A great deal of ill will allegedly exists between Wagner and SUBJTOT, and Informant believed that dagner lives in constant fear of SULEDI. Informant believed that the reason for this ill will is that SURFEST was once is rounded as a fraud in the intelligence Field by Kagner and has since bried to amout revence from Wagner because of Magner's denunciation which occurred somethe after World War II. The circumstances suprounding Wagner's denumbistion of SUBJECT, divulged informant, were that addition, in class to impress several Western intelligence services, at one time proclaimed that he was in direct radio contact with numerous high-ranking Sovict officers. Wagner allegedly conclusively disproved this contention, and has sime Diver fear of SUBUNCI's revenge. Informant knew nothing slat regarding SUBUNCT other than that he is at the present vinc managing the furertihod Hotel, Rupertmasso IO. Solar me, for Adolph Bibus, a rolloent of Boru. Switzerland. EAUDER-RIATT, Richard - Security Information Former German Intelligence Agent Land Salzburg, Salzburg, Austria Dossier No. (

Dossier No. 01392 S-17295 WE/mdf

Hildegard Ogrisek, who has been a personal friend of Informant 3766 since 1947 in Gras, Lami Styria, Austria, related the following facts concerning her personal life and her relationship with SUBJECT: Source stated that she, her sister Sylvia Ogricok, and her brother, Eril. 2. Sok, are the children of Julius and Mathilds Ogrisek, formerly the owners of the Grand Hotel in Roitsch-Sauerbrunn, Jug elavia, near the Austro- igoalavian border. While in Poitsch-Sauerbrunn before World War II, all three had been pro-German in sympathy and had been members of a Corman-sponsored intelligence service known as the Cultural Association, the head of which, in Jugoslavia, was KAUDEP-KIAT. Lource remembered that during this period of time SUBJECT's German superior in the organization was in the habit of often visiting him in Jugoslavia in order to discuss the effairs of the Cultural Association. In 1945 Source, Sylvia Ogrisch, and their brother, Erich, fled Jugoslavia because of expected Partisan persecution, and thereafter lived in Graz, Land Cyria, Austrie. When the Hotel Bugertihof was opened in Salzburg in 1950 Source and Sylvia Ogrisek found employment there; the ourrent whereabouts of Source's brother was unknown. When Informant asked if SUBJECT were the lesses of the Notel Pupertibof as well as itr manager, Source expressed surprise, and stated that he was; however, she added that SUBJECT's leasing of the Rupertihof is a secret not even known to the Rupertihof epployeas. Source stated that SUBJECT has been living at the Rupertihof flotel since approximately June 1952, and that in August 1952 SUBJECT was visited at the Rupertihof by his former superior in the Cultural Association. At the time of his visit to SUBJECT, his former superior was believed to have given a large sum of money to SUB-JECT and was alleged to have convinced him at the meeting to lease the Rupertihof Hotel. Source also related that SUBJECT is engaged in exportimport activities with offices at Schwarzstrasso 30, Salzburg. The interview with Source was concluded when informant was informed that at the Rupertihof, SUBJECT cohabits with a handsome foreign girl. Source also stated that SUBJECT is probably in the unploy of German Intelligence.

1a); Yesterusy Erwin called me up. "hey cannot yet loave.

- 1b): MACHART speaking. "e will propose that all of us will go there but will return the same day firstly because of the luggage one cannot take along luggage for such a long time - secondly in order to discuss the application and the conditions.
- 2): You didn't consider that the trip will cost 1300 schilling. I ordered rooms and pail for them. Yesterday I called up and was told that the sitter is all right.
- 1b): Yesterday night HARRY called up; thus we made up our mind.

2): May I talk to MAFRIT Woll, things cannot be managed this way.

- lo): That's what I said.
- 2): I already paid 1600 schillings for the rooms.

lo): Somehow one has to find a solution.

- 2): I don't have so much mensy and cannot pay 1300 schillings just for going there and return. Why didn't you think the matter over before?
- 20) DORLI, too, is here
- 2d): HARRY wants me to tilk to you.
- 2): I don't know why and I to t want to spend so much money on telephone calls. Yesterday I wer told that everything is all right. The money was remitted. Why to but want no to spend 1600 schillings on the rooms? Let me talk to HARFY. "My do you want me to talk to her?
- lo): How can things be managed?
- 2): I called up yesterday and I talked to you on Saturday. You cannot tell me how this this and now that.

- 2): In this case we have to without these people. I will call them to account for the damage at the Trade-Union.
- lo): Do you still care for the peoplet
- 2): But I cannot order rooms for 9 persons and pay for them. Propose something. You returned a fortnight ago. You were supposed to inform me whether the initer will be started on the 2nd or on the 9th.
- lo): It's not my fault that I learned it but in the night.
- 2): I will turn to the Frade Union. I don't see why I am to pay the costs.
- lo): They don't know whether an agreement will be reached.
- 1): A contrast cannot be concluded over the phone. You said that you are authorised to concluse. lo): Ask ERGIN whether $\frac{1}{2}$ was suborised.
- 2): I was told that everything is all right.
- But everything was all right. lo);
- le): There are several matter: which have to be discussed.
- 2): That could have been done during the past 14 days.
- Bul you wanted us to come to you. le):
- 2): The principle difficulties could have been straightened out in writing.
- le): But he wrote you a letter.
- 2): I told him that it's impossible to demand more and always more. Appoint two people and o me tomorrow. Now let me talk to HARRY. I tell you one things I am not going to be in it if there will be principle changes.
- lo); We will come tomorrow with the train at 9 o'clock.
- 2): Did the money arrivet
- lo) It is deposited at the post-office, I was notified.
- 2 /: Keep the money; I don't unit to have further expenses.

- lo): Three of us will come.
- 2): With which train?
- lo): With the first train.

- l: Is the engineer int
- 2: No, he isn't.
- I: I reserved a letter from MACHIDANI (?). The application for foreign currency was granuil. He wrote me: I am emplosing the pro-forma invoice. It has to be submitted at once.
- 2: That is for BURGHART & Co, Essen. But I sannot remit the money unless the letter of oredit will be opened.
- 2: "" will have to arrange this with the 'Volksbank'.
- 1: I want the ongineer to call me up tomorrow in the forencon. He sent me a letter because of the 1,800 schilling, but he is mistaken. My account is blocked because of the matter concerning the pipes. One year ago I said I'll pry the 1,800 schilling as soon as I'll get the money from Vienna. But up to now I didn't get anything. That's not my fault.
- 2: Where is this fellow W.RUMAY
- 1: I don't know, he is no' competent for this matter. In those days that was a stupid matter with the pipes and afterwards with STRENCHITZ (7)
- 2: Discuss everything tomerrow.
