bilities of coordinated action, since SATOMI and the GENYOSHA Group are also attempting to strengthen their connections with the Foreign Office's Intelligence Section, with SONO Akira, and with the Special Investigations Bureau. One possible difficulty to the rapprochement and merger of the two efforts is that SATOMI, as he expressed it to HIDAKA earlier on 4 September, has a very low opinion of KODAMA Yoshio. DOI's subordinate was not named.

shio. Dul's subordinate was not named.

5. KODAMA Yoshio's position is that of funnelling information from his widespread Kikan to DOI Akio. The information mostly concerns the Japan Communist Party. (B-2) KODAMA, at one time in his past career as a civilian TMKK head in Central China, received directives and orders from HIDAKA Shiro, since the latter was the military TMKK Chief. (Evaluation: B-4; they were not ever apparently in the same Army command.)
