Sj: Flash Report on Carriage Test of Agent I yesterday.

1. This report is for your operational use and covers all the essential elements. It is not for dissemination in its entirety, but summaries, excerpts, etc., may be disseminated by you, PROVIDED that the "estimated reliability of the results" (para 2) is included in all disseminations.
2. A formal report will follow eventually, of which MOB keeps two copies.
2. Estimated Reliability of Results: Subject was strongly and consistently responsive, and the results are estimated to be "reliable", in the scale of "reliable", "fairly reliable", and "unreliable".
3. Questions to which it is believed the subject is answering entirely truthfully as shown:

1. All questions relating to identity and life history. Yes.

2. As far as you know, did the NKVD Chief, Melnikov, order your arrest in 1941? Yes.

Are you now, in any sense, an espionage agent of the MOB, the Communists, or their allies? No.

Did you work against the Communists since 1940? Yes.

Did you ever, for private reasons, commit a robbery, a murder or grand larceny? No.

Was Perkonkrusts just a band of criminals? No.

As far as you know, is your sex-life normal? YES Yes.

Do you remember your written statement concerning your life history which you gave to Mr. (Case Officer) Yes.

Did you tell any important untruths in this statement? No.

Have you heart trouble? Yes.

Did you in 1944 still have any kind of connections with the NKVD or any other Communist group? No.

Are you married? Yes.

Are you mainly dealing with us because you want romantic adventures? No.

ditto because you have orders to do so from an anti-Communist emigre group? No.

ditto because you want to help the Communists? No.

ditto because you want to make money? No.

ditto because of some other reason you want to conceal from us? No.

Are you a fanatic? No. ~~XXXXXX~~

Did you keep a copy of this life-history you gave us? No.

Are you an agent of the Communists? No.

4. Questions which disturbed the subject, assessed as follows:

Are you trying to conceal any kind of a criminal crime? No. There was probably something that the subject (who is quite self-critical) puts in this category on his conscience. It does not appear to be a major crime.

Are you trying to conceal something important about your life-history statement? No. As distinct from the partner-question: Did you tell us any important untruths about your life-history? (No) on which the subject is insensitive, he gets a certain "kick" out of the concealment question. I believe it is a fair bet that he has one or two secrets in his past.

that he wouldn't care for us to know about. The sensitivity is not of a kind which would indicate major lying in this subject.

Are you mainly dealing with us to liberate your country from the Communists? Yes. A response to this question is normal under the circumstances and in view of the subject's self-critical character. In the main, I would say that he has told the truth about his motives.

5. Summary & Estimate: Subject appears to be the person he claims to be and not either an agent of a Communist power or an emigre-group. He appears not to be a criminal but has one thing or another on his conscience which he considers to be a crime, probably quite minor. Subject appears to be telling the main truth about his life-history but is holding back something of probably minor importance. Subject appears to be telling the main truth about his motives.

Subject is a highly intelligent and well-balanced personality, mature and experienced. His heart condition could easily be aggravated by continued nervous as well as physical strain. Subject appears to have considerable qualities of leadership. Very self-critical.

6. Remarks & Recommendations: Subject should not be exposed to continuing physical strain, and it should be borne in mind that a heart of an emotional nature strongly affects his heart.
