WASHINGTON, D.C. 20505

3 September 1975

Mr. William G. Miller
Staff Director
Select Committee To Study Governmental
Operations With Respect To Intelligence
Activities
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Miller:

In reference to Section III, (10) pertaining to individuals in your letter of 31 July 1975, the Directorate of Operations and the Office of Security maintain files on Arthur James Woolston-Smith. Both files contain the following FBI documents.

1. Two reports of the New York Field Office dated 19 April 1957 and 13 July 1956
Subject: Arthur James Woolston-Smith.

2. A memorandum from the Director, FBI to E. Tomlin Bailey, Director, Office of Security, Department of State, dated 19 November 1956
Subject: Arthur James Woolston-Smith.

On 27 August, the FBI approved SSC access to their New York Field Office reports but denied access to their memorandum to Mr. Bailey. The documents approved for access are available in either the Reading Room in or in the Office of Security file on Woolston-Smith.
