

520-10-10-11-13

February 25, 1971

Dear Sir:

President Nixon has transmitted to Congress his second annual review of United States foreign policy.

I know that in your field of professional expertise the President's report will be the subject of intense study and comment. Consequently, I am forwarding a copy to you in the hope that you will find it helpful in analyzing American foreign policy for the 1970's.

With best wishes,

Sincerely,

Very truly yours,

Henry A. Kissinger
Assistant to the President
for National Security Affairs

Enclosure

HAN:KEN:SCD:dk