

10/17/69

Dear Sir:

I have been informed that I may make an appeal for the charges on the enclosed ticket. It was issued to the driver of my official automobile who had double parked only briefly in front of the apartment building to help me with my luggage. When we returned to the car, the officer was in the process of writing the ticket. It was imperative that I return immediately to Washington, and I was therefore unable to make this appeal in person.

I will appreciate any consideration you can give to this appeal.

Sincerely,

Henry A. Kissinger
