THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

August 27, 1976

Nancy: Wilma / Wilma
Anne:

~~I have a call in to wait to relay~~ The following is a social invitation for the General for Monday evening, August 30:

John Wallach of Hearst Newspapers invites General Scowcroft (and Mrs. if she can attend) to a small dinner he and his wife are hosting
in honor of the Israeli Ambassador to the UN, Chaim Herzog. Herzog just had a book come out this week, and the dinner is sort of in celebration of that.

It will be an informal dinner at 8:30 p. m. at their residence -- 3252 O Street, N. W. Other attendees are: Betty and Winston Lord, Peter Rodman, and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kingsbury-Smith (one of the Directors of the Hearst Corporation).

I told Wallach I would probably not be able to give him an RSVP until Monday a. m., but it would be great if the General could focus on it over the weekend.
