I. Administrative Data

Case No.:	2012-11394	(b)(3) (b)(6)	Case Title:	Misuse of Government Systems	(b)(3) (b)(6)
Investigator:	[redacted]	(b)(7)(c)	Supervisor:	[redacted]	(b)(7)(c)
Date Received:	11 June 2013		Date Opened:	11 June 2013
Date Assigned:	23 July 2013		Case Type:	Preliminary Investigation

II. Summary of Investigative Actions

1. (U//~~FOUO~~) On 9 July 2013, the Office of the Inspector General (OIG) received information from the Directorate of Support/Office of Security/Special Investigations Branch regarding potential misuse of government systems to include potential viewing of child pornography. The referral referenced the Agency Internet Network (AIN) activity of [redacted] a former Agency contractor. [redacted] security file was independently reviewed by a Special Agent not associated with the case to remove any statements made during polygraph and background interviews.

2. (U//~~FOUO~~) OIG reviewed [redacted] AIN activity [redacted]

[redacted] OIG further reviewed the AIN U: drive associated with [redacted] for evidence that he viewed child pornography using Agency systems.

III. Findings

3. (U//~~FOUO~~) [redacted] was employed as a contractor with the Agency from [redacted] 2009 through [redacted] 2013. On [redacted] 2013, [redacted] Agency affiliation was terminated [redacted]

4. (U//~~FOUO~~) A 3 September 2013 review of [redacted] AIN activity found no child pornography activity and that the search terms used by [redacted] were not specific to child pornography. Extensive browsing of adult pornographic sites was identified.

5. (U//~~FOUO~~) A 3 September 2013 review of [redacted] emails and chats found that they included numerous attempts to set-up sexual activities in public locations. None of the individuals identified in the chats were purporting to be under the age of 18, and [redacted] was identified as asking individuals if they were between "18 and 24", which were the years he wrote that he was interested in.

6. (U//~~FOUO~~) A 23 October 2013 review of [redacted] AIN U: drive found no images or videos of child pornography on the drive. The review further found that no documents or files containing evidence of child pornography were identified on the drive.
