MHBK member reorganizing the Arrow Cross in Italy and Austria

MGFA 1375, 18 February 1949

Dr. Karoly NEY was born 9 Nov 06 at Baczzxentivan, Hungary. He is 171 m tall, weighs 63 kg, has brown hair and green eyes. He was arrested and held at the war crimes cage, Dachau, in 1945, as a possible war criminal. and/or witness to the executing of 4 or 6 unerican plots at Sur, Hungary, in 1944. While at the came he gave the following information concerning his back ground: Prior to 1936 he was director in an industry and farmerplant . In 1937 he joined the Hungarian Avmy and became an instructor. CIC investigation reveals that Subject's first political importance started in the spring of 1939 when he bacame an ardent supporter of the extreme right wing pro-German bloc in the Hungarian Parliament. Then Hungary entered WII, NEY is believed to have been promoted to first Lt in the Hungarian Cavalry. Allegedly he served a tour of duty on the eastern fromt, returning probably because of partial disability, in 1943. He then assisted in the organization of the KABEZ or "Comradeship of the Eastern Front Fighters" and was eventually appointed chairman of the movement. The name of the organization was changed at a later date to that of Veres Kard or "Bloody Sword". In the summer of 1944, NEY allegedly entered the service of 33 Overgruppenfuehrer Vinkelmann and the latter's political advisor, or. Wilhelm Notl (or HOTTL), and accepted an appointment in the SS. At that time MEY established contact with Otto SMORZENI with the intention of creation a group of experienced former army personned who could be utilized as a "suidide" organization for work behind the Soviet lines. Surported b. SKORZEN and financially by ex-Premier Bela TREDY (sentenced to death as a war criminal by the Hung gov't in 1945), subject conducted extensive recruiting tours throughout HUngary, obtaining technicials of all types from among the ranks of wounded or discharged officers who had served on the eastern front. The Hungamian high command did not approve of MIX's tactics, and never supported him lue to his close comperations with the Nazis.

In September 1944, HEY officially established his organization which was known as the Helafejes legro or Jeath's Head Legion, with the assistance of SKORTIMY. Subject allegadly obtained military equipment, arms, ammunition and supplies through SKORZEMY. axtending A training center known as the "Farlesanfueher Schule" was established in the Bakony Mountains area, where Ge man 33 officers and non-coms served as instructors. After a fallout with SKORZENY, NEW offered a few hundred of his men to General SEELANDER, commander of the 8th German SS Cavalry Division. SEELANDER allegedly promoted Subject to the rank of Sturmbannfuehrer in the SS. A part of his group was later reported to have been dropped behing Soviet line:.

NEY is reported to have reanneared for the first time since the war on 10 May 1948 in the M nich area. He stated that he as ingaged in reforming his "Death's Head Legion" and recruiting additional technicials of all types from the Hungarian ex-army personnel scattered throughout the occurred zones. He also stated that financial support for his movement had been forthcoming from the V tican and from Generalissimo Franco of Spain. NEY is reported to have visited the Eggenfelden area in June 1948 continuing the search for former members of his unit. During this visit he is reported to have been queried regarding the molitical trends of his are a and reported that CIC in Wocklabruck, Austria, was fully aware of his activities and was supporting him completely. A check is being made with OIC Austria Bo donffrm or refute this statement.

A check wit former members of the Hungarian Gendarmerie who were approached by NEY during his recruiting drive revealed that he claimed to have received 275,000 ANS from US intelligence authorities for his preliminary work. The Gendarmerie stated that they believed NEY and a few of his associates were planning to bry as much financial assistance from US authorities as possible and then flee to France. At the prewent time, reports indicate that NEY's activities center around the area bounded be Salzburg, Vocklabruck, Lambach and Gmunden, Austria. He has established a new training center for the reorganization of his group in this area and it is believed to be at Gmunden. Although subject spends the greater part of his time in Austria, he visits Germany regularly and is reported to maintain contact with General Ferenc FARKAS, leader of the Anti-Bolshevik Hungarian Liberty Movement.

MGKA 21379, 4 Aug 50

Alleged reasons for FARKAS' visits to Austria in May and June 1948 were to visit Dr. Karoly NEY, former Sturmbannfyehrer of the Hungarian IS.

MAV 628, Summer 1948

Karoly NEY, a former KOPJAS leader and NADAS were expelled from ZAKO's organization because they were suspected of working for the American IS in Austria.

MGKW 2809, 25 August 1949

Reference reports indicate that Karl NEY is presently collaborating with "talian military intalligence. As you will note it states further that NEY entered Italy with apparently genuine Allied military government documents in the name of "arl KIRCHBERGER. From another source it has been learned that NEY apparently was in contact with CIC, Linz, Austria, during 1943/48 and had the backing of some members of that unit for his intelligence activities.
