TEMPORARY ENGAGEMENT WITH THE GESTAPO.

- 5. When the Party came to Power in 1933, Subject was approached by Krim Sek. WOLDEIT, official of the Gestapo, who promised him during the course of conversation, to give him a good position in the Gestapo. He was transferred to the Gestapo, Prinz Albrechtstr and was engaged in the information office also doing guard and Dauerdienst. He states that his engagement lasted three months, and later he was re-transferred to the Schutzpolizei. He states that during his employment with the Gestapo, he was not considered an official member, but only received the usual 20 RM's a month increase to his salary.
- 6. His duties with the gestapo lasted until Dec 1, 33. In Oct. 33, he became an established Schupo official, promoted to Hauptwachtmeister and was forced to leave the Gestapo after that short period, and to continue at the Schupo. (See special points para: 17)

DUTIES AS V-MANN, SD-AUSSENSTELLE SPANDAU.

- 7. During his duties at the Schupo in 1936, he became acquainted with SS-Ustuf MEYER, who was at that time Dienststellenleiter at the SD-Aussenstelle Spandau. During the conversation MEYER decided that he could trust Subject, and offered him the position as SD-V-Mann. Subject was informed that his duties would consist of collecting information about the political views of members of the Schupo, and the forwarding thereof to the SD-Aussenstelle Spandau. He was also informed that this work would be voluntary with NO payment, and would in no way interfere with his Schupo duties.

8. Types of information supplied by Subject:

- a. Schupo officials' political views.
- b. General trend of Schupo department politically.
- c. Use of Schupo Card Index, in order to obtain information re-persons of interest to SD-Spandau.

Subject also states that on two or three occasions during the month he had to attend conferences at the SD-Aussenstelle Spandau, and was then usually interviewed by SS-Ustuf MEYER who gave him his orders. Subject knew that several Schupo officials in the department were also engaged as V-Männer, personnel known by Subject to have been such, are mentioned in Appendix.

TRANSFER TO POLIZEI-BATALLION.

9. In September 1939, he was compulsorily transferred to Polizei-Batallion 9, Berlin-Spandau. This Batallion had been newly formed with the purpose of use as Occupational Police Force. Several other Schupo officials were transferred at the same time. The Batallion consisted of 4 Companies, each being 150 men strong, and equipped with machine guns, pistols and Motorised transport. Soon after joining this Batallion, he underwent infantry field training, covering the use of firearms, the course however primarily emphasised Police duties. All members of this Batallion were dressed in ordinary Schutzpolizei uniform with their normal rank.
10. In Nov 39, the whole Batallion moved to PRAGUE. Upon their arrival they were quartered in the Landforstlichen Museum, and remained there two days standing-by. Later a propaganda march took place in the city in order to show the citizens "The strenght of the German Police". At that time there were students' riots, and this Batallion guarded the University and was responsible for the maintenance of order in PRAGUE. This duties lasted three weeks, when the whole Batallion was sent back to Berlin, being quartered in the Berlin-Schöneberg Kaserne.
11. April 1940, the Batallion was re-organised into groups of 50, with the purpose of transfer to NORWAY. Upon their arrival in NORWAY, they finally were stationed in an empty school building in OSLO. They were soon given their orders, and divided into small sections, carrying out Guard Duties & Street patrolling, in the neighbourhood of official buildings. In their spare time, they drilled and carried out normal exercises. Six weeks later, Subject was attached to an MG convoy, Abteilung Fernsprecher & Sterrungsucher near OSLO. With this convoy they patrolled the Norwegian-Swedish border. Subject was engaged there as a clerk until February 41.
12. Feb. 41, the Batallion was replaced by another Batallion newly arrived from SUDETENLAND, and they returned to Berlin by train. Upon his arrival in Berlin, he was granted three weeks leave, and during this period he was discharged from the Batallion, and given permission to rejoin the Schutzpolizei. Subject states that all Schupo officials over 40, with a long service in the Schupo, were discharged from this Batallion. He was able, after leave to join the 145 Pol Revier, Berlin-Siemensstadt, as Beamter zur besonderen Verwendung. His duties here consisted of investigation of street accidents, traffic offences etc. With the date of re-joining the Schupo he continued his V-Mann activities in the aforementioned capacity. In April 1943, he was promoted to Meister.
13. NOTE: Subject states that after his discharge in March 41, the Batallion received further field training in Berlin, and were then sent to the Eastern Front as Special Einsatzpolizei. It is known to Subject from hearsay that this Batallion carried out during their stay in RUSSIA, the shooting of civilian suspects, and general War crimes. Personalities presumed involved in War Crimes in this Batallion are given in Appendix.

DUTIES AS LUFTSCHUTZSACHBEARBEITER.

14. In Jun 44, he became Luftschutzsachbearbeiter at 143 Pol. Revier. He states that this position was given him when his predecessor was transferred. His duties consisted of supervision of air-raid shelters, especially those in Industrial factories in certain quarters in Berlin. Also dealt with the compiling lists of air-raid officials in these factories. Apart from these duties, he advised the areas concerning 143 & 145 Polizei Revier, re-burial of air-raid victims. (Subject states that he also had to send in certain reports to the SD-Aussenstelle re-air raids, number of ARP officials in factories etc.)

SS-COURT and REASON FOR SUBJECTS' TRANSFER TO POSEN.

15. In Aug 44, his first wife committed suicide and Subject was suspected of being responsible for her action. As all major offences as a Schupo official were tried at the SS-Court, Subject was suspected being responsible for his wife's action, he was brought before the SS-Court and as a result of the investigation, he was compulsory transferred from Berlin.

SPECIAL POINTS.

16. Subject admitted that he was a "Nazi Idealist" even before the Nazis came to power, hence his rush to join as a paying member in 1932. He also was a member of the SA in 1932, and due to his engagement with the Schutzpolizei he was unable to carry out SA duties, and therefore discharged from the SA in 1933. He left the Church voluntarily in 1926. Joined the NSV in 1933.
17. His connection with the Gestapo have been admitted by him, also that he volunteered for this work, in order to gain security. However, it is remarkable that even so he was only an unofficial member for three months, at the end of which he was re-transferred to the Schupo. Subject states that in Oct 33, he became an established Schupo official, and promoted to Hauptwachtmeister and was forced to leave the Gestapo after three months service, and continued at the Schupo. The statement by Subject that he was only in the Gestapo three months unofficially, appears unreliable, although there is NO proof to the contrary.
18. Subject's engagement with the SD was/a voluntary capacity, and as he stated, he was fully trusted, and found enough reliable for the duties as a V-Mann. He carried out these duties from 1936-39, and then continued from 1941 upon his engagement at 143 Pol Revier, until his transfer to POSEN in Dec 1944.
19. Subject's present wife Lily nee HIRSCH, who has been separated from him for a year, and who now awaits her divorce, was interviewed by the Interrogator in order to check Subject's statement re his history and activities. As a result of the Interview, she stated that Subject had NO SS connections, and never wore SS uniform. His police career as Meister der Schutzpolizei continued until the Capitulation. Frau HIRSCH has NO detailed knowledge of his work with the Gestapo & SD, having known him only since 1943-44, when she was married. She gives him the character of a fanatic Nazi Idealist.
20. There still remains doubt concerning Subject's activities, but his engagement with the Gestapo & SD as V-Mann, brings him within the Automatic Arrest Category, his activities are considered being more than of minor importance.

CONCLUSION.

21. Subject has proved quite willing and helpful during the interrogation, but he is considered still to have a fanatical Nazi character. Therefore he is considered a possible Security Danger.
