Excerpt of pertinent information :

(SO-23058)— General Constantin Petre-Lazar, aide to King Mihai, has sent further instructions from the King to General Nicolae Radescu and Grigore Niculescu-Busesti, relative to the nomination of members of the projected Rumanian Coordination Committee. The text of the letter to Niculescu-Busesti, which acknowledges receipt of the nomination of members to represent the political parties in such a committee, under date of 6 March 1949, is given. . .

Together with General Nicolae Radescu, four persons outside political ranks were to be selected for membership on the Rumanian National Committee for Coordination.

Together with General Radescu, a list was to be compiled containing the names of ten persons recommended to form the Rumanian National Committee for Coordination, including those four persons selected jointly, five persons from the Council of Democratic Political parties, plus the name of General Radescu. The completed list of ten persons for the Rumanian National Committee for Coordination was to be signed by the two principals, i.e. General Radescu and yourself, then it would be presented to His Majesty the King. . .

This is all the pertinent information on subject in this document.
