Excerpt of pertinent information:

P. 1—A confidential source, believed reliable, advised that the National Committee for Free Europe, Incorporated, had been contributing substantially to the members of the Rumanian National Committee, in that the National Committee for Free Europe, Inc., paid monthly salaries to the members of the Rumanian National Committee. This assistance, the informant stated, continued up to the time that it was apparent to the National Committee for Free Europe, Inc., that Charles A. Davila, the former Rumanian diplomat to the United States, would not be acceptable in so far as the Rumanian National Committee was concerned for membership in its committee. The informant stated when it was apparent that no deal could be made to bring Davila into the Rumanian National Committee, he started a new committee which is known as the Association of Rumanian Refugees in the United States and Canada. . . The informant stated that General Nicolas Radescu, the former head of the Rumanian National Committee, now heads the new committee. . .

P. 2—The informant stated that the Rumanian National Committee's sources had revealed that no Rumanian was contacted in France who was not loyal to Radescu and to the members in the new committee. . . .

This is all the pertinent information on subject in this document.
