 The wives of sixteen Chrysler Corporation executives in Buenos Aires received letters on 30 October from the Montoneros threatening to kill their husbands unless they ceased "exploiting workers and collaborating with the military government." The Montoneros followed this up on 2 November with telephone calls to each executive's home to confirm receipt of the letters. The Montoneros are believed responsible for the 3 November assassination of an Argentine Chrysler executive.

Latin American JCR Plans Meeting in Europe

3.3(b)(1)

Representatives of the Revolutionary Coordinating Junta in Europe, who have been inactive in recent months, plan to meet in late November to discuss their future activities.

 the JCR members want to initiate a program in the near future to include increased propaganda activity and more contact in Europe with other leftist revolutionary groups. Representatives of at least three of the original JCR member organizations will attend-- the People's Revolutionary Army (ERP) of Argentina, the Movement of the Revolutionary Left (MIR) of Chile, and the Tupamaros of Uruguay. The National Liberation Army (ELN) of Bolivia also may be represented.

TERRORIST THREATS AND PLANS

Tab B includes all reasonably credible reports of planned terrorist activity. Although the reliability and access of the sources vary considerably, the threats listed are considered sufficiently plausible to warrant alertness and the use of protective security measures. However, terrorist groups often discuss general intentions or make tentative plans for violent acts that they never succeed in carrying out. In nearly all the cases listed, the intended target and appropriate governments have been informed of the threat.
