TO: Chief of Station, Germany EGOA 1723

INFO: EE COS/ [] WE []

FROM: Chief of Base, Hamburg 15 July 1960

SUBJECT: Operational/CALL
Otto SKORZENY

REFERENCE: EGOA 10292, 8 June 1960

1. The following information was elicited casually from the former Chief of the LfV in Hamburg, now Senatsyndicus (State Secretary) for the Interior Paul PFEIFFER:

Otto SKORZENY is not of current interest to the Hamburg LfV and as far as was known in Hamburg the LfV in Lower Saxony had no reason to concern themselves with him. SKORZENY does not live in this area; his residence is still believed to be in Spain. He comes frequently to Hamburg on business. When he does he usually stays at the home of Dr. F. P. KRUEGER, the former SRP functionary, Bestenbachhof, Boetersheim, near Hollenstedt, Lower Saxony, about 20 miles outside of Hamburg. (For the WE addressees: SRP is the now outlawed Socialist Reich Party, a neo-Nazi organization.)

2. The Lower Saxony LfV would undoubtedly be pleased to get after SKORZENY if we give them any reason to do so.

3. We will take no further action unless we hear from you.
