Strictly Confidential & Personal,

Dear Chief:

I enclose a copy of a communication which is intended for whatever efficial of the U.S.Government it would interest (hence not specifically adressed) from Mr. Jarnalay Stotske, the President of the A.B.M. Blee of Nations, and a former Prime Minister of the Ukraine, concerning his interest in contacting appropriate efficials of our Gegernment while he is on this side of the Atlantic. I am in touch with him. He is in Canada with his wife on a two menths visa which meaning expires at the end of this menth. He is due to return to Europe at that time, he may have to fly to London for a few days around the 17th of this menth for a conference of all the heads of the various national groups in the A.B.M. erganization, but if he does so, plans to return to Canada immediately for the completion of his visit and work of contact here. There is semething of an urgent nature stirring within that organization at this time, reacting as I understand it, to some forthcoming pressure tactic on the part of the Seviet Union.

Mrs. S. applied for him and herself for a visa for the States at the American Consulate General at Terente about six weeks age, and was given a brush off. Was teld to come back in two menths and they (Vice Consul) would see what could be dene. X

I have reported the desire of Mr. 3. to contact our people, together with animals an earlier draft of the enclosed communication, but almost identical—which came to my hands thru the intermediary assistance of a local contact who is closely inteuch with these people, to Amb. Woodward who in turn has referred it to Washington for instructions. We are awaiting Washington's reply. I am fearful that our political boys, will, out of excessive caution, miss a fine opertunity to make direct contact with an exceedingly valuable source of information. These people are receiving information all the time from behind the Curtain. With encouragement and direction, they could obtain a great deal more. What's more, with encouragement they could create a better and more effective underground. What's wrong with the idea of encouraging people who are willing to risk their lives in order to fragment the enemy— and who themselves seek the freedom and independence that we talk about so much?

I can see a reason for caution in not appearing openly to flaunt the leaders of the insurgent groups in the enemy's face.
But what are they doing to us in sending in Zarubin? However, Mr.
S. is here under a passport bearing another name. Also his wife.
Passport was issued by the West Germany Government, and has been visaed by the British and Canadians. They are in the know. If desired, this mam's presence in the States could be kept under wraps, and if further desired, he could surely be brought in for contact by our people without making contact with his own groups while there,— for fear that they might attempt to publicize and exploit his presence.
I am sure that he would agree to any formula-for he is serious in his desire to contact the proper parts of our organisation, and I believe sincerely that he has got semething to give.

You will know how to handle this, and whom to approach. Please keep me out of it, since I am working through the other channels, but without much hope. If there is to be a firming up of policy and proceedure, new is a good time to begin, while at least one key peg is on the decretep. This man can speak with considerable authority for the insurgent, and underground operations, and I think he would impress with his quiet sincerity and determination.

His wife, whe is also a very shrewd and knewledgeable person, (although seemingly a quiet hausfrau) would accompany him if at all pessible. She apparently sustains him a great deal in his endeavers. They fear the M.V.D. here. He sleeps, I am teld, not more than twice in the same place. A couple of husky youngsters accompany him quietly whereever he goes. If he could go to Washington, he might wish to bring his own interpreter. He speaks Ukrainian, and I believe a little German. Understands a little English, but dees not speak it sufficiently well to make use of it.

I would suggest a party of three (Mr. & Mrs. & interpreter) very quietly arranged, and to guard against unfortunate eventualities, some of our own people to take ever at the border, if travel should be by surface. It would be much better to fly them direct to Washington. Why couldn't the M.A. at the Emb. be instructed to quietly bring them down. Keep them under wraps, and set them back down in Canada with few in the knew. They are in Terente, but that airport is too busy. If this method were used, some quieter spet such as Ottawa er even this place, should be set-up.

This, I suppose, is another one of these attempts to help the cause which went register in the press of the pursuance of present pelicies, but I thought I would at least have a try at it, and I know that you will knew how and where to work, if the idea is any good.

All the best to you,

Sincerely,
