

EO 13526 3.3(b)(1)>25Yrs

EO 13526 3.3(b)(3)>25Yrs

SUB

EO 13526 3.5(c)

Secret

Directorate of Intelligence

3.5(c)

b3

Terrorism Review

b3

1 November 1984

Secret

1 November 1984

Copy

b3

Approved for Release
Date JUN 1999

1 0 3 9

33

Page Denied

~~Secret~~
~~NO FORN DISSEM~~

b3

3.5(c)

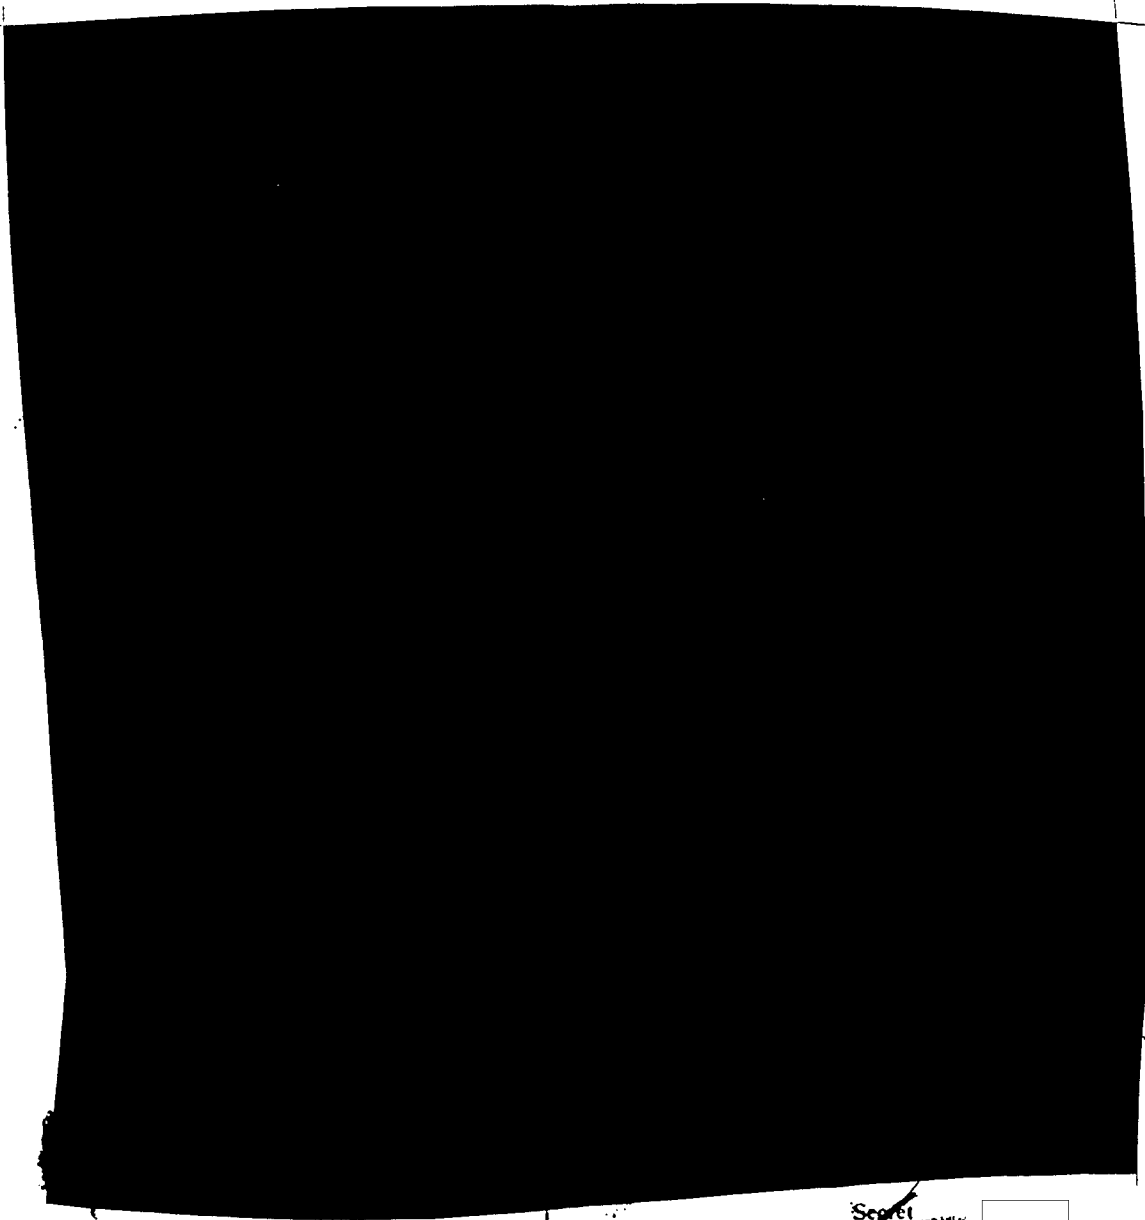

3.5(c)

Terrorism Review

1 November 1984

b1
b3

~~Secret~~
~~NO FORN DISSEM~~

1 November 1984

3.5(c)

1 0 4 2

NR

Page Denied

Page Denied

Page Denied

NR

Page Denied

NR

Page Denied

NR

Page Denied

NR

Page Denied

NR

Page Denied

NR

Page Denied

Page Denied

NR

Page Denied

NR

Page Denied

Page Denied

NR

Page Denied

NR

Page Denied

Page Denied

NR

Page Denied

Page Denied

Page Denied

Page Denied

Page Denied

Page Denied

Page Denied

Page Denied

Page Denied

NR

Page Denied

Page Denied

NR

Page Denied

NR

Page Denied

~~Secret~~

NR

Chronology of Terrorism—1984

16-17 October

FPMR Bombing Campaign

In Santiago, the Manuel Rodriguez Patriotic Front (FPMR) claimed credit for a series of bombings of powerlines, banks, and various municipal and private buildings. In Rancagua and Talca, bombs caused extensive damage to the Chilean-North American Cultural Institute and the Chilean Agricultural Center. Three persons were injured, and eight regions of the country were blacked out for several hours.

3.5(c)

31

~~Secret~~

0 7 2

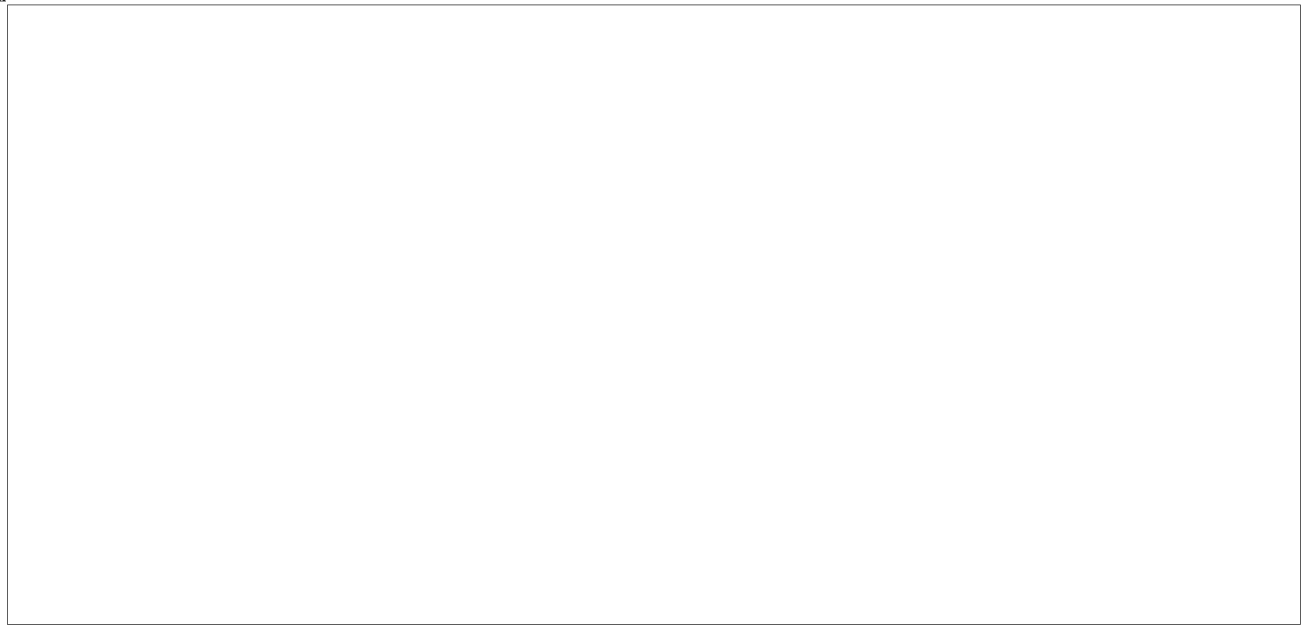

NR

Page Denied

~~Secret~~

Chronology of Terrorism—1984

NR

21 October

NR

Brazil-Argentina: Montonero Leader Extradicted

Mario Eduardo Firmenich, head of the Peronist Montoneros, a terrorist group active in the mid-1970s until decimated by the Argentine military regime, was extradicted from Brazil to Argentina to face charges of murder, kidnapping, and extortion.

3.5(c)

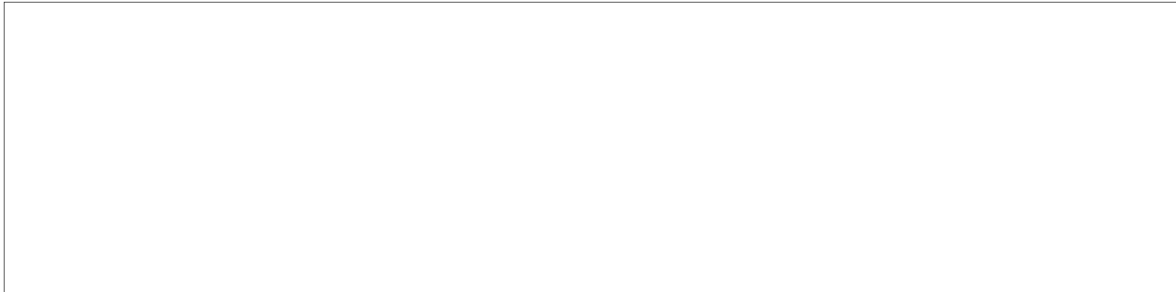

~~Secret~~

1 0 7 4

~~Secret~~

Chronology of Terrorism—1984

NR

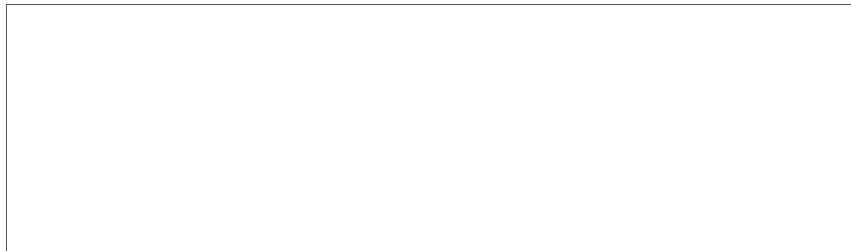

24 October

NR

Chile: Nine Anonymous Bombings
Santiago and Concepcion were the scene of nine bombing attacks. Targets included government buildings, businesses, and transportation and energy-related facilities. One person was seriously injured. No group has claimed responsibility.

3.5(c)

NR

~~Secret~~

0 7 5

NR

Page Denied