

UNITED NATIONS WAR CRIMES COMMISSION
(FAR EASTERN AND PACIFIC SUB-COMMISSION)

List of War Criminals and Material Witnesses

(JAPANESE)

The following list of Japanese war criminals and Material Witnesses are subject to immediate capture and detention by the Allied powers. The persons listed as War Criminals are named as such where the Sub-commission is satisfied that there is, or will be at the time of trial, sufficient evidence to justify their prosecution. Each of the persons have been classified according to the evidence presently at hand. The following classification of cases is followed by the Sub-commission:

- A-1 cases against named individuals where evidence is sufficiently complete to charge them as actual perpetrators of war crims.
- A-2 cases against enemy military and civilian personnel where evidence is sufficiently complete to charge them as having been concerned in the commission of war crims, either by having encouraged them, condoned in them, or in any other way shown their responsibility for them.

JAPANESE WAR CRIMINALS & SUSPECTS

The following is a ~~list~~ provisional list of Japanese war criminals as prepared by the War Crimes Branch, Office of Theater Judge Advocate, APO 879. The capital letters in parenthesis below each individual's name indicates the govt. interested in such person: (A) Australia, (B) Britain, (C) China, (D) Dutch, (US) United States.

B cases not falling under A-1 or A-2, but where any named enemy individual or military or civilian enemy personnel in authority should be held for interrogation as material witnesses after the cessation of hostilities.

Rich Hotel, about 28 years., broker. Was during the war in extremely varying financial situations, sometimes completely broke (e.g. at the end of 1943 and early 1944), sometimes spending money lavishly. At times in close personal contact with L. HAUTIZ, Austrian Jew, who was in Chinese jail for opium trade from April, 1944, to April, 1945. Heroin equipment was found at his place early in 1944. Made money on motor car sales to Japanese in second half 1944. Regarded as agent for Japanese purchases of platinum early 1945. Applied for Soviet passport, but still regarded as emigrant; his wife Soviet citizen.
