NO: CA-946 August 24, 1953

SUBJECT: Titi Constantinescu

TO: BELGRADE, BERN, BOMB, PARIS, ROME, SALZBURG, TRIESTE, VIENNA

Now in operation is a centralized [ ] which in certain cases will reveal whether or not a suspected source is selling identical information to more than one [ ] or intelligence agency. The Register should also make possible the identification of sources of fabricated intelligence.

In this connection the following source has been determined to be unreliable:

Titi Constantinescu (alias Tito Constantinescu, Peter Constantinescu, Petre Constantinescu, Peter Bogdan, and Petre Bogdan) is peddling information on Romanian emigres in Europe, as well as information received from refugees among Romanian emigre groups, Western intelligence services, and at least one Communist-dominated country.

He was born October 29, 1910 in Bucharest, Romania. From 1925 to 1931 he attended the Romanian Aeronautical Technical School in Bucharest. Between 1931 and 1934 he attended the School of Air Force Officers, Mamas School of Firing and Bombardment, and the Aviation School of War. After taking the Bucharest Polytechnic School in 1934 in electronics (1936 to 1941) he received a degree as an engineer. In 1941 he was sentenced to a long prison term for "subversive activities." When an amnesty was decreed he managed to escape and became a ranking member of the Communist-controlled Romanian Secret Police. He holds derogatory information from his files (regarding his own activities). As a result he was released from prison in 1945. He used the alias of Peter Bogdan. He was in July 1952 in the United States under his own name. As late as February 1952 he was in the United States at post office box 104, 1141 Westport, California. He was then known as Petre Constantinescu, b. 1910, Schomburg, New York, New York, telephone 69-783. About 5'10", 6 inches in height, dark hair, regular features, usually wears a beret, and has a mustache.

A paid agent of Western intelligence, he is considered unreliable because he will serve the highest bidder. He is associated with Ioan Constantinescu, former member of the Romanian Secret Police, who has been reported as completely unreliable. He is an intelligence activities contrary to the interests of the United States. It is
