SECRET

1. Jan and Tatiana (husband and wife) have been known to WISCHMANN from Prague in 1944. Jan is a White Russian who emigrated to Czechoslovakia. Tatiana came from Riga and came to Prague after Poland was overrun and the Baltic Countries were taken over by the Russians. When she came to Prague she had to claim some citizenship and she claimed Russian but refused to go back. During her stay in Prague she had to report regularly to the Gestapo at Prague. In 1944 she and her husband were sent to Theresienstadt Concentration Camp for listening to the BBC. Both Jan and Tatiana are Jewish.

2. The pair was released from the Concentration Camp by the Russian troops and was then employed by the "GPU" at Prague as informants.

3. WISCHMANN was surprised when through friends the JACKERSONS approached him with the request that he "use his influence and to talk to a German employee named UEDAN at the Munich Police-precidial Pass Bureau (at Ritzstrasse) to issue them a certificate stating that they have business interests in Munich, so that they could now openly visit Munich whenever they liked".

4. JACKERSON's Prague address is: Vinohrady Londynska 28.
