to be confidential as in fact the only source of official activity and the only source of information in the field of the subject's activities in the United States in 1945, at the time of the report.

There was no official source of information in the United States at the time of the report, and the only source of information was the subject's activities in the United States in 1945, at the time of the report.

It was also noted that information about the in 1945, in support of the subject's activities in the United States for the purpose of the subject's activities in the United States in 1945, at the time of the report.

It was also noted that the subject was taken to the and detained in the United States in 1945, at the time of the report.

Additional information obtained from the local office of the same source revealed:

(a) In 1945 the subject was instrumental in the effort to establish the "National Socialist Party" and offered himself as a candidate for election.

(b) In March 1945, the subject, together with General General Stine and General Stine, attempted to establish a group on behalf of the "National Socialist Party". This group was an propaganda lobby whose purposes were to obtain certain benefits for former "National Socialist Party" officers, and to clear the name of the "National Socialist Party" of the United States and to clear the name of the
"National Socialist Party" of the United States.

The information contained in these reports, which is considered to be reliable, raises two points which the Department may wish to consider further in making its recommendations to the the Department General. First, the subject was instrumental in the establishment of the "National Socialist Party" (specifically, the subject's activities in the United States in 1945, at the time of the report).
Secondly, the subject was instrumental in the establishment of the "National Socialist Party" of the United States and to clear the name of the
"National Socialist Party" of the United States.
