Dear Mrs. Roosevelt:

Thank you very much for your letter of June 5, 1952, confirming the hour of 3 p.m. on June 27th for your meeting with some of our people. A general discussion of your observations on your recent trip through Southeast Asia and, in particular, India would be most beneficial to us. In order not to impose too much upon your time, I would suggest I arrange the meeting to last not more than an hour if this would be convenient for you.

When your plans are firm for your visit to Washington, kindly let me know where we can meet so that I can accompany you to the Agency.

Sincerely,

SIGNED
