Dear Co-Chairs of the Bicameral Task Force on Climate Change:

Thank you for your letter of 25 February 2013 (see enclosure), in which you requested that my office assess the Central Intelligence Agency's efforts to address the impact of climate change. I recognize and appreciate the importance of this issue; however, I do not have resources available to compile the requested information. I have provided a copy of your letter to the Director of the CIA's Office of Congressional Affairs, for consideration.

The Office of Inspector General takes very seriously any concerns related to the operations and activities of the CIA. If you have any questions, please contact me or my Executive Officer at

Sincerely,

David B. Buckley
