Cultural Practices

Australians often greet each other with "G'day," or "G'day, mate," but if a foreigner were to use this phrase it might come across as patronizing. The most common greeting is "Hey", "Hello", or "Hi".

Tipping Guidelines

Restaurant prices are required by law to include tax and service charges. Rounding up the bill to the nearest $5-10 (AUD) would be appropriate for exceptional service. Try to leave cash, since it is common for servers not to receive credit card tips. Round up the fare for taxi driver's tip.

Souvenirs

Boomerangs and other indigenous carved items, stuffed toy native animals (such as kangaroo, koala, wombat, and platypus), jewelry, woolen goods, vegemite

Traditional Cuisine

Meat Pie — a fist-sized baked pie filled with ground meat, gravy, and cheese and topped with ketchup; the gravy often contains onions and/or mushrooms
