Travel Facts

US State Dept Travel Advisory

The US Department of State currently recommends US citizens exercise normal precautions in Liechtenstein. Consult its website via the link below for updates to travel advisories and statements on safety, security, local laws, and special circumstances in this country.

Passport/Visa Requirements

US citizens should make sure their passport will not expire for at least 6 months after they enter the country even if they do not intend to stay that long. They should also make sure they have at least 1 blank page in their passport for any entry stamp that will be required. A visa is not required as long as the stay is less than 90 days.

US Embassy/Consulate

US does not have an embassy in Liechtenstein; the US Ambassador to Switzerland is accredited to Liechtenstein EMER: +(41) (031) 357-7011; US Embassy Bern, Sulgeneckstrasse 19, CH-3007 Bern, Switzerland

LGBTQ+ Travelers

When venturing abroad, LGBTQ+ travelers can face unique challenges since laws, attitudes, and legal protections vary from country to country. Consult the website via the link below to learn what precautions to take before and during your trip.

Cultural Practices

Liechtenstein's workday is longer than many other countries, 8 a.m. to 6:30 p.m., albeit with a very long lunch break (officially from noon to 1:30 p.m.). On the country's National Day, 15 August, all residents of the principality are invited to Vaduz Castle, the prince's residence, for a reception that includes speeches and free aperitifs.

Tipping Guidelines

Service charges are included in most bills and further tipping is not required. Taxi fares include a service charge so no tipping is necessary.

Souvenirs

Embroidered household linens, knitted woolen and felt items; wooden toys, cuckoo clocks, and jewelry boxes; ceramic, pottery, and marble items; wine, collectible postage stamps

Traditional Cuisine

Hafalaab – a soup with ham or bacon and cornmeal dumplings. Käsknöpfli – small dumplings topped with cheese or onions. Muesli – uncooked rolled oats, fruit and nuts that have been soaked in water or juice.
